

Training: Baloo training well is held on the 19th of Jan 2008 for all Cub Leaders in the Korea District. District is looking for assistant instructors to help to run this training class. If you would like to be part of the staff please contact the Service Center. At this time we have six leaders that have stated that they will attend. The fee will be $6.00 per adult to attend this event. Leaders should also check out the BSA Learning Center. It has a number of on line training classes, which you can complete. When you complete a course please send the cert of completion to the Service Center to make sure that it is in your record. E-mail address <http://scoutnet.scouting.org/elearning>

Order of the Arrow: The dance team is in need of OA member to join the team, they meets every Thursday at 6:30pm Troop elections will be held in February 2008 so that they can be tapped during the Spring Camporee. As each troop set up their election dates let the Chapter know so they can send an election team to your meeting. Make sure that you understand the requirements for the elections. The Chapter is looking for an early Ordeal for those that did not do it during the past Summer Camp. The Chapter has nominated three members for Vigil honor this year. The Chapter is getting ready to support all units in Korea with OA support. The OA can form for your Blue & Gold or any other function that you may require.

WOODBADGE: Wood badge is coming to Korea again in 2008. This will be the second time that this course will be given in Korea. The course will be two full weekends in October the 10-12, and 24-26 October 2008 at Camp Market. Ned Stoll will be the course director for this year course. Any more information needed please contact Ned Stoll. We need a staff for this course as we only have three now. This is the highest-level training for Scout Leaders
